To Whom it May Concern:

I would like to make everyone aware of an absolute Gem of a business located in Santa Fe, NM. The City Different, certainly is different in having a business of such high caliber as The City Different Fence Company, owned and operated by Mr. Carlos Archuleta.

I originally contacted Mr. Archuleta about building a horse fence around the center of our circular driveway to be. We agreed on a 3 rail, split rail, with wire horse fencing inside. His pricing was better than I had been quoted elsewhere, and in watching the construction, it was evident of his superior quality. Mr. Archuleta told me that it was not completed until HE was happy with it. I have to say he is far more critical than his customers.

We then decided to have a garden wall enclosing some of our yard. It was to be a block wall with a stucco exterior, 4' high. We were not in attendance during the major part of the construction, but I felt absolutely at ease knowing the trust I had in him. When we arrived back at the house, the wall was up, with the wire on and they were starting to apply the stucco. I told him it was a shame to stucco it because then no one could see how beautifully the wall was constructed. It was perfect inside! Once completed, it is a magnificent addition to our property.

I can say without hesitation that as we continue development of our property we will need further fencing and no one will be contacted for the work other than The City Different Fence Company. They are one of the most outstanding contractors I have ever had the opportunity to work with.

I highly recommend The City Different Fence Company to anyone contemplating installation of fencing. Not only is Carlos great to work with, but I now consider him a friend.

Sincerely

Ronald Lattner

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is a reference on Carlos Archuleta, Manager of the City Different Fence Company of Santa Fe, who recently completed a Coyote Fence for us here at Nambe Pueblo.

We are extremely pleased with the final results and the fence is a beautiful addition to our home and compliments the surrounding area beautifully. Mr. Archuleta's expertise and workmanship is remarkable. He is most cooperative and pleasant, listens to suggestions, and he and his well qualified assistants pleased us in all phases of the project.

We have received a remarkable amount of compliments on the fence and how it adds to the aesthetics and blends into the beauty of the area.

We most highly recommend him and would most definitely call on him for any future projects.

Sincerely,

Cora O. McKenna and Brendan McKenna
